Public encouraged to meet New Ulm composer-in-residence

NEW ULM — Composers, writers, historians, set-builders, music theater buffs, artists, dancers and all curious parties are welcome to a meet-and-greet for New Ulm's composer-in-residence, Mike von der Nahmer.

Mike will talk about his journey from Munich, Germany, to in New Ulm, the grant that enabled him to come here and his plans for involving the New Ulm community in a special project culminating with a concert of New Ulm stories contained in musical theater pieces.

Mike needs people that are interested in telling their stories, composing music, writing words, performing music and designing materials.

He is especially interested in working with high school and college students who have an interest in composing music or lyric writing. He plans to hold classes to teach young people how to go about writing for musical theater.

The initial meeting with Mike will be this Sunday, May 14, at the Grand on the second floor toward the front of the building.
